What is the International Medical Practitioner Certificate? An advanced examination (set at levels B2 and C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages) which assesses language skills in a Medical Practitioner context.

- A Cambridge ESOL examination produced and assessed in collaboration with Europe's leading hospitals.
- Recognised by leading associations of Practitioners including the European Medical Association.

English Go Centre focuses on the language and communication skills that doctors need to make consultations more effective using five elements of good communication: verbal communication, active listening, voice management, non-verbal communication and cultural awareness. The course teaches learners how to sensitively handle a range of situations such as taking a patient history and breaking bad news, as well as preparing doctors for dealing with different types of patients. Good Practice demonstrates the impact of good communication on the doctor-patient relationship and enables students to become confident and effective practitioners in English.

Why take the Medical Practitioner English Certificate (ILEC)?

The Medical Practitioner Certificate (ILEC) is for Medical students or practising medicine who are:

- seeking employment in an international medical context,
- intending to study Medicine where the course includes a significant English language content, either in their own country or abroad,
- seeking promotion within their own organisations,
- learning English as part of a training programme.
